

LD

152

.6

1887c

Amherst
Eighty-seven Decennial.

Class LJ 152

Book 18⁶ 87 c

PRESENTED BY

DECENNIAL REUNION—HITCHCOCK HALL.

Amherst College. Class of 1887

CLASS OF EIGHTY-SEVEN

AMHERST COLLEGE

1887

DECENNIAL BOOK

1897

LII 152

.6

1887C

At Orrin at Library
Feb. 26, 1931

L.C. J. M. 27/51

INTRODUCTORY.

At the Decennial Banquet, the Executive Committee was directed to prepare in simple form the ten years' record of the class of '87.

This record contains, with few exceptions, the substance of each man's history. We wish the information at our disposal were greater; as it is, we make up in quality what we lack in quantity.

May the next decade add as many laurels to '87 as the past ten years has.

CLASS YELL.

“ O! zo-ki-rah-da-koo,
Zo-ki-rah-da-koo,
Rah-rah-rah,
Zo-ki-rah,
Zo-ki-rah-kee-'87 !!! ”

CLASS COLORS.

Cardinal and Steel.

Report of the Decennial Committee.

IN January, 1897, the following committee was appointed by the "Baron" Harper to take charge of the Decennial Reunion at Amherst during Commencement week.

F. B. PRATT, Chairman,
A. P. ALVORD,
A. C. ROUNDS,
E. D. BLODGETT,
Dr. N. C. HASKELL,
F. C. SHARP,
G. B. MALLON,
Rev. JOHN BIGHAM.

Owing to convenience of location and the better opportunity for consultation the burden of the work fell on the New York members of the committee and in order to sound the sentiment of the class on the subject the following letter was sent to each member.

FEBRUARY 13, 1897.

MY DEAR :

The "Baron" has started the Decennial ball rolling and we are in the field now to push it along. You may expect to hear from us regularly until we meet at Amherst, in June.

In the first place, we have engaged Hitchcock Hall, formerly of the Boltwood House, as headquarters, where a limited number of fellows can secure room and board at the rate of $3.00 a day. It is decidedly the most desirable place in the town for headquarters, and, with a goodly number of men back, we can make the College and the Alumni feel that '87 is a royal good class.

Secondly : In order to supply the funds for the necessary expenses, we request that each member of the class send the Chairman $3.00,—this is to cover the cost of announcements, guarantees, rent, etc.

Thirdly : We want as soon as possible a definite knowledge of your plans, whether or not we can count on your actual live presence at Amherst, during Commencement week.

Don't forget that the most important college celebration after graduation is the Decennial. The Quinquennial seldom amounts to much. Twenty years scatter men badly, and the tenth anniversary is the celebration you must attend, if you expect to see the class, as such, together again.

In place of the rather formal class-dinner, the special committee on entertainment and reception is planning a novel spread and smoker,—something unique and old-fashioned, with informality and good cheer.

Commencement week has not yet been appointed, but it will probably be from June 20 to 28.

Very truly yours,

(Signed.) F. B. PRATT, Chairman.

Committee :

ARTHUR C. ROUNDS,
GEORGE B. MALLON,
ANDREW P. ALVORD,
NELSON C. HASKELL,
EDWARD D. BLODGETT,
FRANK C. SHARP,
JOHN BIGHAM.

This was followed by another circular letter and a postal, to which there were fifty-two responses out of a total of sixty-four notices sent out. The tentative suggestion of Bohemianism contained in the word "smoker" brought down on the devoted heads of your committee a storm of indignant protest from certain quarters, which shall be nameless, while it was hailed with delight by such abandoned wretches as "Bill" Nourse who in the same letter in which he warmly applauded the suggestion of the committee, announced that he could not be present.

This seemed such a palpable effort to involve the committee in difficulty, while refusing to share the responsibility, that we finally decided, with reluctance, to abandon the obnoxious term and to run no risk in departing from traditional lines.

We think it no violation of the confidence of the committee to say that George Mallon at one stage of the deliberations suggested that we have a "Beef Steak" dinner thus justifying again that most euphonious title of "Cold Beef Mallon."

Of the fifty-two men responding twenty-seven were in Amherst at some time during Commencement week. These were as follows :—

ALLEN,	HAYLEY,	ROUNDS, R. S.
ALVORD,	HAYNES,	SIBLEY,
BLISS,	KEATING,	STEVENS,
BULKLEY,	KENDRICK,	WHITEHILL,
CONRAD,	MAGILL,	WHITNEY,
DAVIS,	MIRICK,	RIKER,
DIXON,	PRATT,	CALL,
HARDY,	ROGERS, E. B.	HOWE,
HASKELL,	ROUNDS, A. C.	PUTNAM.

The committee had engaged as Headquarters the old Boltwood House, now known as Hitchcock Hall, which proved most satisfactory for the purpose. Here the class dinner was served on Tuesday at one o'clock, this being the only available hour, and twenty-three men sat down. It was informal in character giving an opportunity for the renewal of old friendships and for listening to messages from absent classmates not fortunate enough to be with us.

The business meeting following resulted in the election of these officers :

Prest, F. B. PRATT,
 Vice-Prest. R. S. ROUNDS,
 Secy. & Treas. C. A. SIBLEY.

A vote of thanks was extended to the retiring officers John F. Harper, Arthur Kendrick, and John Bigham.

On Monday afternoon a base-ball game was played on Pratt Field between '87 and '94 the result of which has no part in this history. On Tuesday afternoon Prest. Gates held his usual reception for the Alumni of the college, a special invitation being given to the class of '87.

On Tuesday evening Professor and Mrs. Todd, extended to the class the hospitality of their charming home a delightful courtesy greatly appreciated by those fortunate enough to attend.

To clear the committee of suspicion as to the proper disposition of the $3.00 assessment levied on the members of the class a financial statement is appended hereto which we stand ready to have attested in legal form if desired.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

Expenditures :		Receipts :
Hitchcock Hall and		Class dues	$ 110.00
extras	$ 85.00	Room rent	50.00
Dinner and extras	45.00		<hr/>
Decorations	5.00		$ 160.00
Entertainment	12.00
Letters and expenses of Committee	13.00
	<hr/>
	$ 160.00

Class Reunions.

AN incipient annual was held at Mazzett's, New York, January 3, 1888. Alvord, Mallon, Mason, Murphy, Nichols, Pratt, R. S. Rounds, Sanborn, Thorp, Truslow, and Wood were present.

The Annual.

At the Commencement, in 1888, seven men were present:—E. O. Chase, Nichols, Pratt, D. W. Rogers, R. S. Rounds, W. P. White, Whitney.

The Biennial.

Four men returned to Amherst in 1889:—Brough, Howes, Linehan, W. P. White.

The Triennial.

Twenty-one men came back and enjoyed the pleasures of the Triennial.

The spread was held at the Amherst House, Monday evening, June 23, 1890, in the same room as our senior class supper.

At 10.30 p.m., twenty-one men were seated, with the class cup gracing the table, and Bulkley as toastmaster. Those present were:—Allen, Bigham, Brough, Bulkley, Davis, Haley, E. N. Hardy, Harper, Haynes, House, Jones, Putnam, Rogers, E. B., Rogers, D. W., Sanborn, Sedwick, Stevens, White, G. A., White, W. P., Whitehill, Whitney. After fraternal greetings to '89, who were in the adjoining room, the menu was discussed. In beginning the toasts, the toastmaster referred appropriately to our dead, Thompson and Truslow. General remarks were made by Allen, Bigham, Bulkley, Davis, Haley, and Harper, and letters were read from the absent. Business came next. The secretary's report, recommending an annual tax of $1.00 and the union of the duties of secretary and treasurer, was read and accepted, as was also his resignation. The Class-cup Committee reported in favor of Beeman Pitcher Sibley, son of Arthur and Helen Pitcher Sibley, born in Oak Park, Ill., November 3, 1889. The report was accepted, the committee honorably discharged, and the award duly made amid applause followed by a toast to the baby. The wives of the class were formally admitted to honorary membership, and Bigham was elected secretary, vice Mirick, resigned. The banquet was brightened with the old-time songs, led by Whitehill, and the yell was exhibited loud, long, and often. The occasion was enthusiastic and pleasant.

The Quadriennial.

The inauguration of President Gates brought many alumni. Twelve of us appeared, indulged in the usual demonstrations, and enjoyed seeing one another: Alvord, Bigham, Bliss, Chase, C. A., Chase, E. O., Dixon, Haynes, Holton, Rounds, R. S., Thorp, White, W. P., Wood.

The Quinquennial.

Only seven men were present:—Bigham, Dixon, Hardy, E. N., Howes, Keating, Pratt, and White, W. P. At the banquet, Tuesday night in the Amherst House, letters were read from Holton, India; Sharp, Germany; Uchimura, Japan; and a telegram from D. W. Rogers. The occasion was a failure in point of numbers, but some pleasant reminiscences were exchanged, with the hopes of a good Decennial in '97. The secretary's report was read.

EUGENE T. ALLEN.

ROLLA, MISSOURI. Professor of Chemistry, State School of Mines. Married, August 26, 1896, Miss Harriet E. Doughty. No children. After receiving the degree of Ph. D. from Johns Hopkins University, in 1892, he became Associate in Chemistry at the Woman's College of Baltimore, and then Acting Professor of Chemistry in the State University of Colorado. Has written several technical papers pertaining to the subject of his profession.

ANDREW P. ALVORD.

BROOKLYN, N. Y. A manufacturer of metals. After leaving College, he was for six years with the Atlantic Trust Company, of New York City, and is now the Vice-President and Treasurer of the Phoenix Tube Company, of New York. He is not married.

JOHN BIGHAM.

GREENCASTLE, IND. Since 1895, Professor of Philosophy and Systematic Theology in De Pauw University, Ind. Teacher of Greek and Latin in the High School, Ottawa, Ill., 1888; Willcox Professor of Greek, Ripon College, Ripon, Wis., 1889; instructor in Philosophy in the University of Michigan, 1894. Received the degree of A. M., Amherst, 1890; B. D., Yale Divinity School, 1892; A. M. (in Philosophy), Harvard, 1893; Ph. D. (in Experimental Psychology, with Munsterberg), Harvard, 1894. Has written a number of articles, the following being the most important: "An Instructive Experiment in College Government," Educational Review, February, 1892; "A College Administration," Education, June, 1893; "The New Psychology," Methodist Review, May-June, 1896; "A Veteran Teacher,—William Seymour Tyler," The American University Magazine, 1896. John says that he has written voluminously, both in prose and poetry, but adds that but little of the latter has been published.

WILLIAM TYLER BLISS.

NEW YORK.—Assistant City Editor of the "Mail and Express." Has been in the newspaper work since graduation and has written numerous special articles.

EDWARD D. BLODGETT.

CORTLAND, N. Y. Assistant Editor of the Cortland Daily Standard and Secretary and Treasurer of the Cortland Standard Printing Company. Married, on June 13, 1894, to Miss Bertha E. Jones, of Brockton, Mass. Has one daughter, Eleanor Dickinson.

ALEXANDER BROUGH, Jr.

NEW YORK. Lawyer by profession. Received the degree of LL. B., Columbia, 1889. Married, on November 11, 1896, Miss Emilie J. Schmid, of Providence, R. I. Has one child, John Alexander.

SEELYE BRYANT.

EGYPT, MASS. A clergyman, and pastor of the following Congregational Churches:—Lancaster, Mass, 1890-96; Scituate, Mass, 1896 to date. Was married, on May 12, 1891, to Miss Margaret Ferguson MacLean, who died, February 28, 1893. On August 26, 1897, married Miss Kate W. Skeelee. Has one daughter, Agnes Lee.

BARRY BULKLEY.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Was secretary of the Washington Evening News; associate instructor in Emerson Institute; and expert in the United States Department of Labor. He was engaged in the State Department during the preparation of the Behring Sea Case. Has written several articles and has spoken on numerous occasions before societies. He is much in demand as a reader and elocutionist.

ARTHUR B. CALL.

NORTHAMPTON, MASS. The first eight years out of college, Call was in the gold mines of California and Nevada doing considerable engineering and consulting work. For the last two years, he has been in Northampton identified with a catering business. He married, August 22, 1888, Miss Emma E. Fuller. Two children: Frances Mary Call and Raymond Fuller Call.

WALLACE T. CHAPIN.

Address unknown. The information here given is taken from the "Quinquennial Book." Chapin went to Princeton and took his Ph. D. in philosophy in 1890. He published a book on Evolutionary Ethics. He then studied theology in McCormick Seminary, Chicago.

CHARLES A. CHASE.

WEST SUPERIOR, WIS. A banker by profession. Received the degree of L. B. from Northwestern University, Chicago, On February 6, 1894, married Miss Nellie Green.

EDWARD O. CHASE.

CHICAGO ILL. Employed with the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, of Chicago. Was married, on September 1, 1892, to Miss Lydia G. Robinson, of Chicago. One child, Charles Robinson.

WILLIAM O. CONRAD.

FITCHBURG, MASS. A clergyman. Pastor at Blue Earth City, Minn, from 1890 to 1896, and, since 1896, pastor of the Rollstone Congregational Church of Fitchburg. Was married, on May 20, 1891, to Miss E. G. O'Brien, of Portland, Me. One child, Margaret Elizabeth.

ALBERT P. DAVIS.

WAKEFIELD MASS. A clergyman. Pastor of the Congregational Church at Wakefield. Was Professor of Greek in Lincoln College, Ill, from 1887 to 1894. Was also on the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, in Tennessee. He took the degree of B. D. from the Yale Divinity School, in 1893, and the degree of A. M. from Amherst, in 1894.

GEORGE C. DEAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Examiner of patents in the United States Patent Office. Dean writes that he has been fourth, third, second, and first assistant examiner of patents, and that he is now the acting chief of a division. The promotion through these grades was obtained for high standing in competitive law examinations. Was married, on December 21, 1892, to Miss Anna M. Smith. One child, Dorothy.

JAMES D. DILLINGHAM.

CORONA, N. Y. Supervising principal of schools. Was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar, in 1890; was a post-graduate student in the New York University from 1890 to 1892 and received the degree of M. Ped., was principal of the Toms River (N. J.) High School from 1892 to 1893; and of School 25, Jersey City, from 1893 to 1894. He is prominent in Masonic and Arcanum circles.

JOSEPH L. DIXON.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS. President of the Bible Normal College. Was married, on June 20, 1888, to Miss Alice L. Baker. One child, Katharine Janette. Was in business from 1887 to 1891, and, for a short time, was the New York State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. In addition to his present position, he is S. S. Superintendent of the Massachusetts C. E. Union. He has published several articles and booklets in line with his present work.

CHARLES H. DUTTON.

WILTON, N. H. Clergyman. Was pastor at Bethel, Vt., from 1887 to 1888; at Granite Falls, Minn., in 1888; at Ashland, Mass., from 1888 to 1892; and has been pastor of the Congregational Church at Wilton since that time. Was for a short time at Hartford Theological Seminary and took post-graduate courses in Theology and Philosophy at Boston University. He married, on July 23, 1889, Miss Marcia J. Drew, of South Royalton, Vt. Two children, Philip Drew and Ruth.

GEORGE N. GODDARD.

BOSTON, MASS. A patent lawyer and a member of the firm of Crossley & Goddard. Received the degree of LL. B. in 1894, and LL. M. in 1895, from the National Law School of Washington, D. C. Until March, 1897, was one of the examining corps of the Patent Office in Washington. He married, on November 15, 1893, Miss Emily G. Northam of Hartford, Conn. One child, Martha R. N.

CYRUS K. HALE.

NEWBURYPORT, MASS. Nothing has been heard from Hale since graduation.

EDWIN N. HARDY.

QUINCY, MASS. A clergyman. Pastor of the Bethany Church, Quincy. Was graduated from the Hartford Theological Seminary and was for three years associate pastor of the Phillips Church, Boston. He married, on October 22, 1890, Miss Nellie M. Serry, of Westborough, Mass. Two children, N. Phillips and Freeman S.—(Died December 16, 1894.)

WILLIAM P. HARDY.

OAKLAND, CAL. Clergyman. Was graduated from Dartmouth in 1887. Studied at Hartford Theological Seminary. He married, in the summer of 1888, Miss L. J. Adams. He has been in California studying, preaching and teaching ever since. One child, Paul Osgood.

JOHN F. HARPER.

MILWAUKEE, WIS. Lawyer. Received the degree of LL. B. from Harvard in 1890. He is at present Commissioner of Wisconsin and United States Courts. He married, on September 13, 1893, Miss Mary Palmer. One child, Henry Palmer.

NELSON C. HASKELL.

AMHERST, MASS. Physician. Received the degree of M. D. from the Medical School of Maine. Was house officer in the Boston City Hospital from 1889 to 1890; house officer of the Lying-in Hospital from 1890 to 1891; district physician to the Boston Dispensary from 1893 to 1896; attending physician at the Sharon Sanitarium from 1893 to 1894. He has been obliged to leave Boston on account of ill health, and is now located in Amherst.

HERMAN W. HAYLEY.

MIDDLETOWN, CONN. At present instructor in Latin in Wesleyan University. For five years, from 1891 to 1896, he was instructor in Latin at Harvard. He has published "An Introduction to the Verse of Terence" (Ginn & Co., 1894), and numerous essays and reviews, chiefly in the "Harvard Studies in Classical Philology" and the English "Classical Review." He has now in press, with Ginn & Co., "The Alcestis of Euripides, edited with an Introduction and Critical and Exegetical Notes."

GEORGE H. HAYNES.

WORCESTER, MASS. Professor of history, Worcester Polytechnic Institute. Received the degree of Ph. D. from Johns Hopkins University in 1893. Has written a number of important articles for American historical reviews, principally on "Know-nothingism in New England." Two of his most important articles are "Representation and Suffrage in Massachusetts, 1620-1691," published in the Johns Hopkins University Studies, August and September, 1894, and "Representation in American State Legislatures," published in the Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1895.

EDWARD P. HOLTON.

KODEIHANEL, MADURA DISTRICT, INDIA. Missionary. Studied at the Yale Divinity School during 1889-1890, and at Andover during 1890-1891. Since 1891 he has been a missionary in India. In 1894 he had a leave of absence and returned to America, where he married Miss Gertrude M. Sears, of North Amherst. Two children, Clara and Olive, the former of whom has died. Holton writes that he is in the right place, is doing a good work, and is greatly interested in industrial training for the natives. His love of mankind is great, but his love of every man in '87 is greater.

ALFRED F. HOWES.

BRANDON, VT. Principal of the High School and supervisor of the lower grades. For several years was principal of the High School in West Hartford, Ct. Received the degree of M. A. from Amherst in 1892. He married, on August 24, 1892, Miss Sarah P. Clark.

LOUIS V. HUBBARD.

NEW YORK. At present with the law firm of Perkins & Jackson. Was, for eight years after graduation, with H. L. Judd & Co.,—brass goods—New York. He married, on January 26, 1898, Miss Edith W. D. Gray.

JOHN S. HUNT.

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO. Lawyer. Practised law in New York for several years before going to Colorado.

FREDERICK P. JOHNSON.

BERKLEY, CAL. Doing graduate work in Greek, Latin and Pedagogy in the University of California. From 1893 to 1896 he was pastor at Ashburton, Mass. In 1895 he married Miss Carolyn H. Davidson, of Temple, N. H. Two children, Ruth Shaw and Mary Potter.

HARRY V. JONES.

BOSTON, MASS. After leaving Amherst, in 1885, was in business in New York with different electric companies. He has been engaged in the heavy hardware business since 1888.

JOHN T. KEATING.

NORTHAMPTON, MASS. Lawyer. He is also interested in the local politics of Northampton. The size of the diamond stud in John's colored shirt with which he appeared at the Decennial would indicate great prosperity.

ALLEN A. KEENE.

PARK RIDGE, COOK COUNTY, ILL. Clergyman. For four years and a half pastor of the First Congregational Church of De Pere, Wis. He married, on October 24, 1891, Miss Sarah M. Judd, of New Haven. Three children, Phillips Brooks, Alice Lambert and Beatrice.

ARTHUR KENDRICK.

TERRE HAUTE, IND. At present associate professor of physics in the Rose Polytechnic Institute. From 1893 to 1896, he was assistant professor of physics at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

JUNIUS C. KNOWLTON.

TEWKSBURY, MASS. Principal of the High School and district superintendent of schools. He married, on August 31, 1892, Miss Lillian M. Chase. Two children, Chase M. and Ruth E.

WILLIAM W. KIDDER.

HIGHWOOD, N. J. Banker and broker. A member of the firm of A. M. Kidder & Co. He married, on December 13, 1888, Miss Emily F. Bliss. Two children, Amos Mansfield and Delos Bliss.

JOHN LINEHAN.

NEW YORK CITY. Nothing of a definite character can be heard about Linehan. It is known that he is in New York City, where probably he has a good law practice.

WILLIAM S. MAGILL.

NEW YORK. Surgeon and chemist by profession. He was superintendent of the Boston Color Company in 1890; house surgeon of the Paris Hospitals from 1890 to 1894; assistant surgeon at the Hospital Bishat-Paris from 1894 to 1897. At present he is interested in the subject of motive power. He has written numerous articles on medical subjects. He received the degrees of B. S. and B. L. from the University of Paris in 1889; A. M. from Amherst in 1892, and M. D. from the University of Paris, in 1894.

GEORGE B. MALLON.

NEW YORK. Journalist by profession, he is the assistant editor of "The Sun." He married, on November 19, 1895, Miss Irene Black.

J. J. MASON.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. Cotton broker. Has been in Providence for a number of years in business.

GEORGE A. MIRICK.

NEW HAVEN, CONN. Received the degree of A. M. from Amherst, in 1896. Is at present supervising principal of the Strong School, New Haven. He married, on October 3, 1895, Miss Mary L. Dadmun. One child, Appleton Dadmun, born February 10, 1898.

ALONZO M. MURPHY.

SPOKANE, WASHINGTON. A financial broker. He married, on October 22, 1890, Miss Madeline N. Gibbs. Three children, Virginia, Josephine, and Madeline. Aside from his regular business, he has owned and edited a weekly newspaper called "The Outburst," devoted to politics and literature.

FRANK N. NAY.

BOSTON, MASS. Lawyer. After leaving Amherst, in 1885, he entered Harvard and was graduated with the class of '87. He took the degree of LL. B. at the Boston University Law School.

SAMUEL F. NICHOLS.

CHICAGO, ILL. A member of the firm of G. P. Nichols and Brother,—electrical engineers and contractors. He married, on October 17, 1895, Miss Mary J. Forbes, of St. Louis. One child, George Leland.

WILLARD J. NOURSE.

LAKE CITY, COLORADO. A lawyer. Until recently, he was connected with the Bancroft, Whitney Company, of San Francisco,—a law-publishing concern. He married, on March 4, 1891, Miss Halcyon A. Lightner, of San Francisco, who died, August 22, 1895, leaving one child, Harry Lightner. Nourse says: "No one can accuse me of having written a book or having inflicted addresses or articles upon the unsuspecting public. I am now enjoying the greatest permanent spiritual elevation I have ever achieved,—something over 8500 feet,—and think that I can feel wings sprouting from close association with the angels."

ROBERT M. PALMER.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON. An investment broker. He is general manager of the Charles F. Emery Real Estate Loan Company and secretary and manager of the Highland Light Gold Mining Company. He married, on July 25, 1893, Miss Blodget, of Northampton, Mass. One child, Kimball B.

FREDERIC B. PRATT.

BROOKLYN, N. Y. Secretary and treasurer of Pratt Institute. Married, on October 19, 1889, Caroline A. Ladd, of Portland, Oregon. Two children, Charles and Mary Caroline.

WILLIAM A. PUTNAM.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS. Physician. Studied at the Harvard Medical School and is now practising medicine. He married, on October 17, 1886, Miss Lillian Powers.

LAFON RIKER.

HARRODSBURG, KY. Insurance, and manager of the electric lighting and ice plant. He married, on October 2, 1889, Miss Martha Grubbs. One child, Maria Louise.

D. WESTON ROGERS.

CHICAGO, ILL. Physician. Degree of M. D. from Northwestern University Medical School. For the first four years that he was out of college he taught and studied. He has recently been "doing" Mexico for silver and gold.

EDWARD B. ROGERS.

ELMIRA, N. Y. District superintendent of the New York and Pennsylvania Telephone and Telegraph Company. Married, on February 16, 1898, Miss Margaret M. Babcock, of Elmira.

ARTHUR C. ROUNDS.

NEW YORK. A member of the firm of Carter, Hughes, and Dwight. He received the degrees of A. M. and LL. B. from Harvard, in 1890. He is Professor of Law in the New York University Law School.

RALPH S. ROUNDS.

NEW YORK. Lawyer. A member of the firm of Rounds and Dillingham. Received the degree of LL. B. from the Columbia Law School, in 1892. On graduation from the Law School, he was awarded the second prize for essay and examination, and was Prize Lecturer at the Columbia Law School from 1892 to 1895. For the past two years, he has been professor in the evening department of the New York University Law School.

ALVAN F. SANBORN.

MARLBORO, MASS. A writer. Has been assistant literary editor with D. Lothrop and Company, Boston; associate editor of the International Cyclopædia, (Dodd, Mead, and Company, N. Y.); editor of the "Cottage and Hearth," Boston; and, for four years, resident at the South End House, of the Boston University Settlement. He is a frequent contributor to the Atlantic Monthly, and Lippincott, and an occasional contributor to The Forum, Chap Book, and North American Review. He has published,—“Moody's Lodging House and Other Tenement Sketches,” (Copeland and Day, Boston, 1895), and “Meg McIntyre's Raffle and Other Stories,” (Copeland and Day, Boston, 1896.)

ARTHUR H. SEDGWICK.

BELLE PLAINE, IOWA. Congregational minister. Married, on October 20, 1891, Miss Clarissa L. Conrad.

FRANK C. SHARPE.

MADISON, WIS. Assistant professor of philosophy in the University of Wisconsin. He married, on June 30, 1896, Miss Bertha S. Pitman, of Madison, Wis. One child, Malcolm Pitman. After graduation, he studied for four years in Europe, taking the degree of Ph. D. at Berlin, in 1892. During 1892 and 1893, he was instructor in German at the Condon School, New York City, and, since 1893, has been instructor in Philosophy in the University of Wisconsin. He has published the "Æsthetic Element in Morality," (The Macmillan Company), also a number of articles in The International Journal of Ethics, The Philosophical Review, and The American Journal of Psychology. He is a regular contributor to "The Dial."

CHARLES A. SIBLEY.

BOSTON, MASS. Publisher. Married Miss Helen B. Pitcher, on February 7, 1893. Three children, Beeman Pitcher, Helen, and Walcott Ellis.

BRYANT SMITH.

MILWAUKEE, WIS. Physician and surgeon. Took the degree of M. D. from the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, in 1891. At present, he is surgeon to St. Mary's Hospital, The Milwaukee Children's Hospital, and The Emergency Hospital. He married, on July 5, 1893, Miss Mary A. Decker.

CHARLES B. STEVENS.

WORCESTER, MASS. A physician. Received the degree of M. D. and A. M. from Harvard, in 1894, since which time he has been practising medicine in Worcester, Mass.

ALFRED L. STRUTHERS.

SOUTH GARDINER, ME. A clergyman. Married Miss Carrie E. Hardy, May 29, 1890. Three children: Park H., Marguerite, and Francis W.

WILLIAM B. THORP.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. Pastor of the First Congregational Church, Binghamton. Was graduated from the Yale Divinity School, in 1891. He received the Hooker Fellowship, which he resigned the same year to accept his present position. He married, on December 2, 1891, Mrs. Louise H. Atwater, of New Haven.

STEPHEN J. TURTELOT.

SYRACUSE, N. Y. Real Estate and Investments. He married, on October 5, 1893, Miss Emma Lansing. Three children: Montane Lansing, Lansing Bernon, and Stephen Jeffers.

KANZO UCHIMURA.

KYOTO, JAPAN. After graduation, he returned to Japan, where he has been doing some teaching and writing. He has published "The Diary of a Japanese Convert," which has attracted a good deal of attention in religious circles.

CLYDE W. VOTAW.

CHICAGO, ILL. Studied at the Yale Divinity School where he took the degree of B. D., in 1891. He is now instructor and lecturer in the University Extension Department of the University of Chicago. He was married, on November 24, 1892, to Miss Cora C. Whitmore, of Sycamore, Ill.

GEORGE A. WHITE.

ARTESIAN, SOUTH DAKOTA. A clergyman. Is the stated clerk of the Central Dakota Presbytery. He married, on October 10, 1895, Miss Lena N. Demaree. One child: Wellington Irwin.

WALTER P. WHITE.

OSHKOSH, WIS. A teacher. Assistant principal and teacher of physics and chemistry. Has received the degree of A. M. from Amherst.

EDWIN H. WHITEHALL.

WOODSTOCK, VT. Principal of the high school. Has been principal of the high school in West Barnstable, Mass., 1887-88; Hampstead, N. H., 1888-90; Medfield, Mass., 1860-92; and Woodstock since 1892. He was examiner of teachers for Windsor County, Vt., in 1894, and president of the Vermont State Teachers' Association in 1897-98. He married, on August 20, 1889, Miss Caroline T. Manning, of Andover, Mass. One child, Gladys Marion.

WILLIAM B. WHITNEY.

NEW YORK. Patent Lawyer. Received the degrees of M. A. and LL. B., from Harvard, in 1890.

THOMAS C. WILLARD.

CLEVELAND, OHIO. Lawyer. Married on June 7, 1895, Miss Lucy Botten. Was United States Commissioner for the North District of Ohio, and has been identified with political work during several campaigns.

HOWARD O. WOOD.

BROOKLYN, N. Y. A lawyer. Received the degree of LL. B. from Columbia, in 1896. Was assistant corporation counsel of Brooklyn during 1895-96. He married, in April, 1890, Miss Julia C. Twitchell, of Hartford. Two children: Helen O. and Howard O.

Our Dead.

FREDERICK MINER THOMPSON.

Died of typhoid fever, in Brooklyn, N. Y., November 26, 1887. For obituaries, see class book for 1887, and Amherst Student, vol. xxi., p. 76, 1887.

JOHN KIDDER TRUSLOW.

Truslow was with the Sawyer-Mann Electric Co., Riverside, Conn., for some time after graduation. He died July 7, 1889.

WALTER ELTINGE MERRITT.

Merritt was graduated from the Columbia Law School in 1889, after spending some time in the Adirondacks, in California, and Colorado, he returned to his home in Kingston, N. Y., where he died of throat and lung disease, September 26, 1890. For obituaries, see Student, vol. xxiv., p. 62.

EDWARD JENKINS HARLOW.

Harlow was a member of the firm of James H. Harlow & Bros., civil engineers, and superintended the erection of water-works at Waynesburg, W. Va., Belaire, Ind., Etna, Pa., and other places. His death, May 29, 1892, was due to congestion of the brain and heart disease. For obituaries, see Student, vol. xxv., p. 239, and Lit. vol. vii., p. 133, for June.

Location.

California....	Johnson, Hardy, W. P.
Colorado	Hunt, Nourse.
Connecticut.....	Hayley, Mirick.
Illinois.....	Chase, E. O., Keene, Nichols, Rogers. D. W., Votaw.
India	Holton.
Indiana	Bigham, Kendrick.
Iowa.....	Sedgwick.
Japan	Uchimura.
Kentucky.....	Riker.
Maine.....	Struthers.
Massachusetts	Bryant, Conrad, Davis, Dixon, God- dard, Hale, Hardy, Haskell, Haynes, Jones, Keating, Knowlton, Nay, Putnam, Sanborn, Sibley, Stevens.
Missouri	Allen.
New Hampshire....	Dutton.
New Jersey	Kidder.
New York.....	Alvord, Bliss, Blodgett, Brough, Dill- ingham, Hubbard, Linehan, Magill, Mallon, Pratt, Rogers, E. B., Rounds, A. C., Rounds, R. S., Thorp, Turte- lot, Whitney, Wood.
Ohio	Willard.
Rhode Island	Mason.
South Dakota	White, G. A.
Vermont	Howes, Whitehill.
Washington, D. C..	Bulkley, Dean.
Washington.....	Murphy, Palmer.
Wisconsin.....	Chase, C. A., Harper, Sharpe, Smith, White, W. R.

Occupations.

CLERGYMEN : Bryant, Conrad, Davis, Dutton, E. N. Hardy, W. P. Hardy, Holton, Keene, Sedgwick, Struthers, Thorp, Votaw, G. A. White.

LAWYERS : Brough, Harper, Hunt, Keating, Linehan, Nay, Nourse, Rounds, A. C., Rounds, R. S., Whitney, Willard, Wood.

PHYSICIANS : Haskell, Magill, Putnam, Rogers, D. W., Smith, Stevens.

EDUCATORS : Allen, Bigham, Dillingham, Dixon, Hayley, Haynes, Howe, Johnson, Kendrick, Knowlton, Mirick, Pratt, Sharpe, Whitehill, Uchimura.

JOURNALISTS : Bliss, Blodgett, Mallon, Sanborn.

BUSINESS-MEN : Alvord, Buckley, Chase, C. A., Chase, E. O., Dean, Goddard, Hale, Hubbard, Jones, Kidder, Mason, Murphy, Nichols, Palmer, Riker, Rogers, E. B., Sibley, Turtelot.

Degrees.

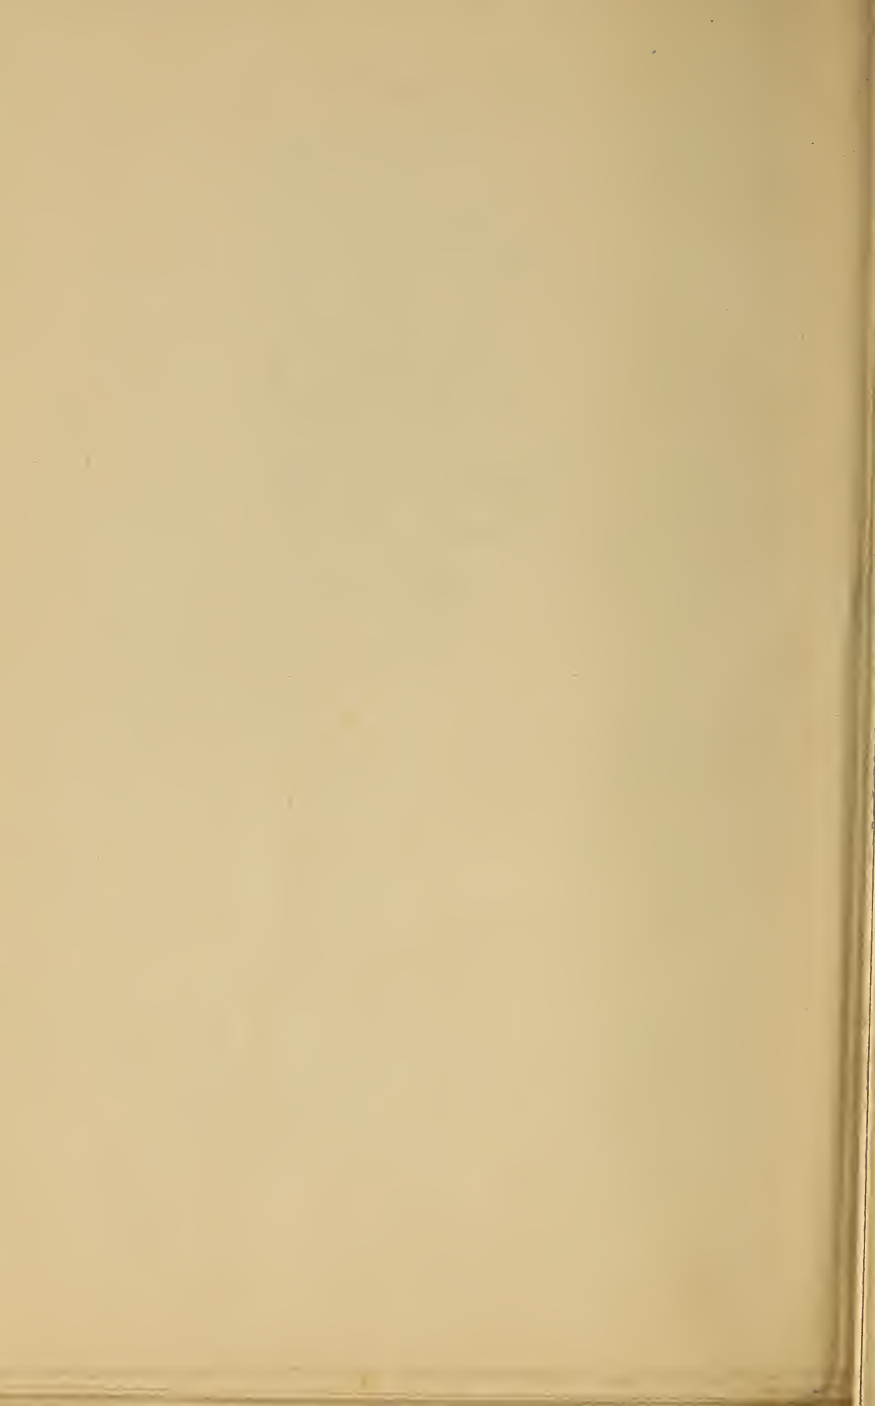

- Ph. D. Allen, '92 ; Haynes, '93.... Johns Hopkins.
Bigham, '94 ; Hayley, '90.. Harvard.
Sharpe, '92..... Berlin.
Chapin, '90..... Princeton.
- M. D.....Haskell Medical School of Maine.
Magill, '94..... Paris.
D. W. Rogers..... North western University.
Smith, '91 P. and S.
Stevens, '94 ; Whitmarsh.. Harvard.
- A. M.....Bigham, '90 ; Davis, '94 ; Amherst.
Hayley, '88 ; Howes, '92 ;
Dillingham, '90 ; Magill,
'91 ; Mirick, '96 ; Holton,
'91 ; Votaw, '92.
Bigham, '93 ; Kendrick, '91 ; Harvard.
A. C. Rounds, '90 ; Stevens, '94 ; W. P. White ;
Whitney, '90.
Chapin, '90..... Princeton.
- B. D.....Bigham, '90 ; Davis, '93 ; Yale.
Thorp, '91 ; Holton, '90 ;
Keene, '91 ; Votaw, '91.
Conrad, '90 ; Sedgwick ; G. Union.
A. White.

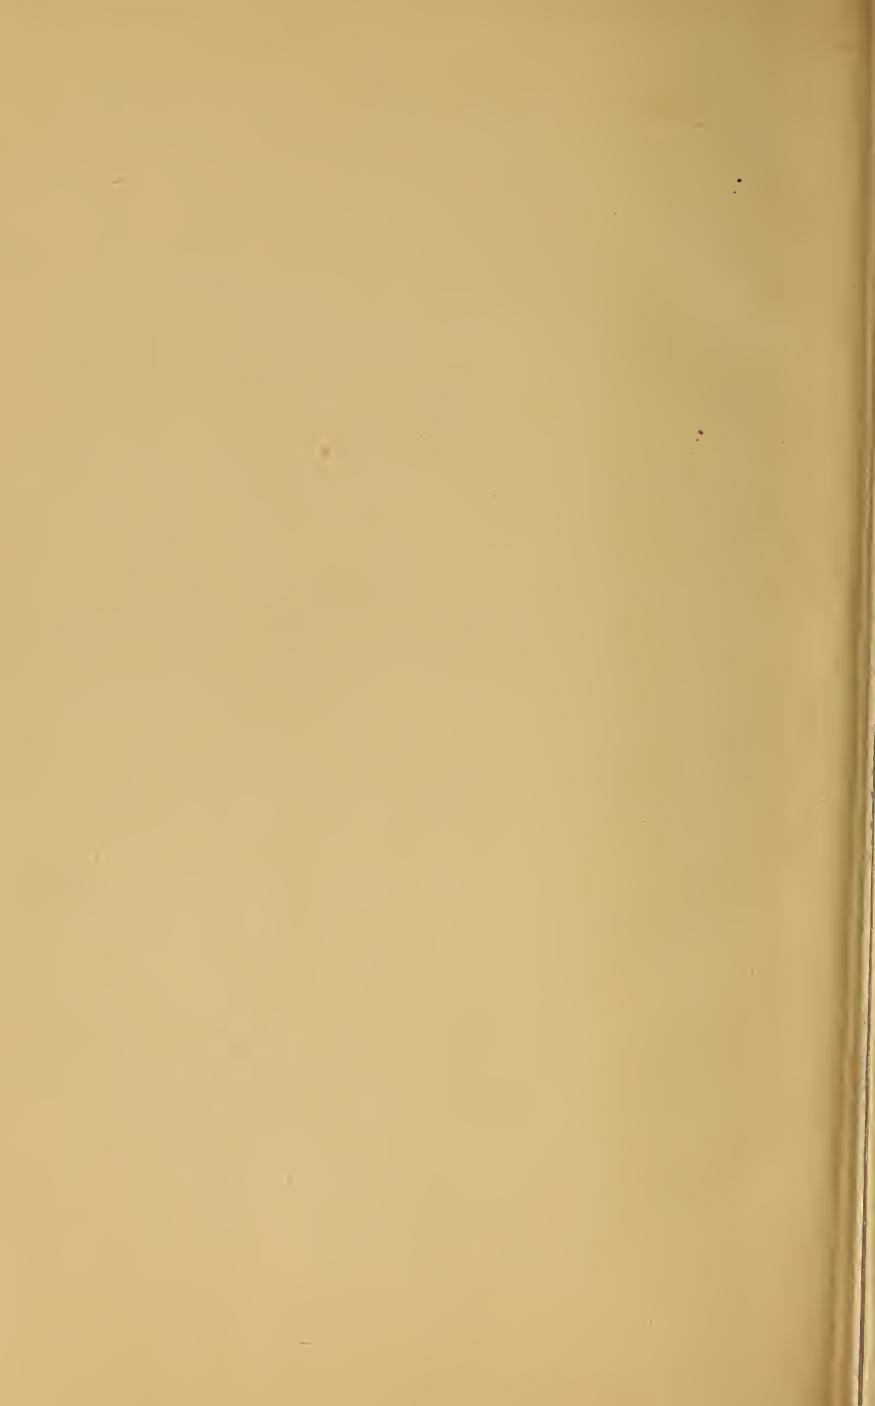

Children.

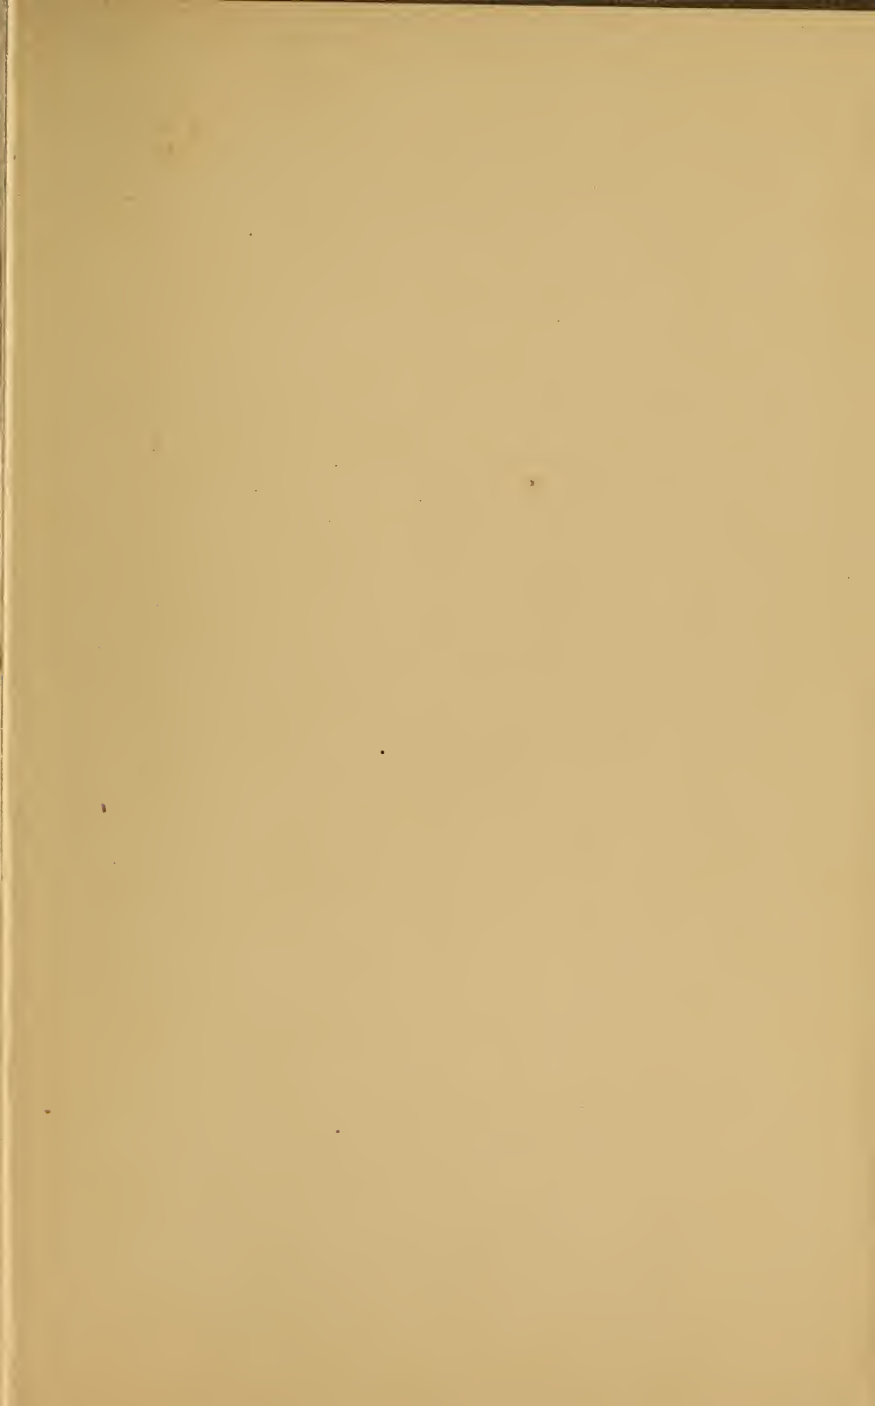

ELEANOR DICKINSON BLODGETT.
JOHN ALEXANDER BROUGH.
AGNES LEE BRYANT.
FRANCES M. CALL.
RAYMOND F. CALL.
CHARLES ROBINSON CHASE.
MARGARET ELIZABETH CONRAD.
DOROTHY DEAN.
KATHERINE JANETTE DIXON.
PHILIP DREW DUTTON.
RUTH DUTTON.
MARTHA R. N. GODDARD.
PAUL OSGOOD HARDY.
N. PHILLIPS HARDY.
FREEMAN S. HARDY.
HENRY PALMER HARPER.
CLARA HOLTON (deceased).
OLIVE HOLTON.
RUTH SHAW JOHNSON.
MARY POTTER JOHNSON.
PHILLIPS BROOKS KEENE.
ALICE LAMBERT KEENE.
BEATRICE KEENE.
CHASE H. KNOWLTON.
RUTH E. KNOWLTON.
AMOS MANSFIELD KIDDER.
DELOS BLISS KIDDER.
APPLETON DADMUN MIRICK.
VIRGINIA MURPHY.
JOSEPHINE MURPHY.
MADELINE MURPHY.
GEORGE LELAND NICHOLS.
HARRY LIGHTNER NOURSE.

KIMBALL B. PALMER.
CHARLES PRATT.
MARY CAROLINE PRATT.
MARY LOUISE RIKER.
MALCOM PITMAN SHARPE.
BEEMAN PITCHER SIBLEY.
HELEN SIBLEY.
WALCOTT ELLIS SIBLEY.
PARK H. STRUTHERS.
MARGUERITE STRUTHERS.
FRANCIS W. STRUTHERS.
MONTANE LANSING TURTELOT.
LANSING BERNON TURTELOT.
STEPHEN JEFFERS TURTELOT.
WELLINGTON IRWIN WHITE.
GLADYS MARION WHITEHILL.
HELEN O. WOOD.
HOWARD O. WOOD.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

0 019 629 444 2